

Coconut Joys

Wendy Hull

Why the Recipe is Special

My mom was all about the holiday cookies. Many a letter carrier and UPS driver have my mom to thank for their holiday treats. This was one of her favorites. Bonus: my husband doesn't like coconut, so more for me!

Ingredients

1 stick butter
1 cup powdered sugar
3 cups shredded coconut
2 squares (2 oz) unsweetened chocolate
3 T cocoa powder and 1 T oil = substitute for 1 oz baking square

Directions

Melt butter in saucepan or microwave.
Remove from heat
Add powdered sugar and coconut. Mix well.
Shape rounded teaspoons of mixture into balls. Place on baking sheet.
Make an indent in center of each.
Melt chocolate over double boiler or in microwave.
Fill indents with melted chocolate. (I use a 1/4 t measuring spoon).
Chill until firm.
Store in refrigerator. Makes 3 dozen.
