Jonathan Desy

Jdesy20@ubishops.ca

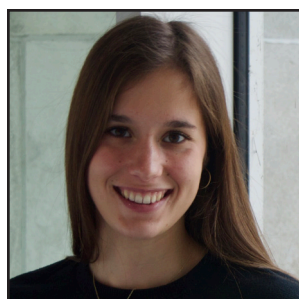

I'm a driven student in Finance with a background in Environmental Science and my goal is to work in the field of sustainable Finance and ESG. I'm involved in the Bishop's University Commerce Society as the Director of Finance and I really like having the opportunity to help my fellow students. I'm also a Research assistant for the Bishop's Seed portfolio and I'm very eager to learn more about valuing companies and market research.

Finley MacDonald

Finleymacdo@gmail.com

I am a part of the Men's Varsity Rugby team, while participating in extra-curricular's such as Case Competitions, managing our commerce society's financing, founded and co-author of our capital markets newsletter, guiding tours for incoming students, and learning investment strategy as a research assistant for our student investment fund. I completed a 14-week in-person internship at Raymond James Ltd. Toronto office working alongside the Private Client Group team. In my future, I want to pursue a career in institutional banking or private equity.

Annabelle Mclean

annabellemclean2@hotmail.com

This year at Bishops University, I have decided to take on new projects, one of them being more involved in case competitions. I have decided to register in 4 different case competitions this year while also taking on the role of financial director for the biggest charity event at my University and fundraising director for the The William School of Business.

Anne-Sophie Voyer

avoyer21@ubishops.ca

I joined the fashion show committee as communications director, I volunteered for a community clean up, I joined the flag football club, etc. I also started gaining more experience in case competitions by participating in Bishop's University's Commerce Society's case competition and by taking the case competition class. I am also involved in many things outside of school. I started playing rugby last year and I was promoted at my summer job from lifeguard to first aid attendant.

When I was a child my family ran multiple small businesses to make ends meet but none of them held up. Sooner or later, after the highs of opening we'd experience the low of closing our doors, a loss of income, of food on the table. Like my family, so many people have the dreams of seeing their business succeed and I want to work with them and share the tools as well as knowledge I've gained which can and will make those dreams a reality.

Thomas Lynch

thomas.lynch25@mail.DCU.ie

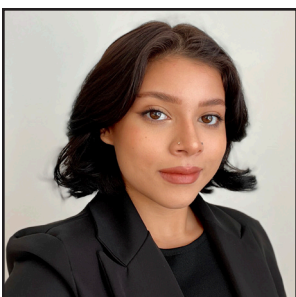

My career goal is to complete my ACA exams and become a chartered accountant. I would like to gain a broad range of experience working with startups and SME's to allow me to start my own business in the future. I am proud of completing a year-long internship at KPMG Ireland and receiving a 1.1 first class honours grade in my first and second years of university.

Grace Mollaghan

grace.mollaghan2@mail.dcu.ie

My greatest passion from a young age has been fashion and I one day hope to become a Fashion Editor at one of the many magazines I am continuously captivated by. To date, I have worked as a Junior Marketing Executive for an Irish cosmetics brand, Sculpted and interned at the fashion PR agency in London this summer. I am also Head Stylist for DCU's Style Society.

Anita Carbajal

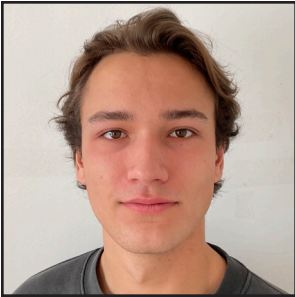

blahblahblahanita@gmail.com

I want to work Internationally in strategic planning for Global Expansion of medium sized businesses. My proudest achievement was in 2020 at the height of the pandemic. I resided in my hometown of Yuma, AZ; with a high population of low income families. With support of my employer at that time, I was able to coordinate a County wide food drive. This consisted of the distribution of food to the community of four separate cities that make up Yuma. We were able to provide over 500 families with groceries at a time when they needed the most help.

Ultimately I want to own a company. I am keen to work in the start up environment.

Sam Heck

samheck59@gmail.com

I am a determined person who will never stop without achieving my goal. I am resourceful, curious, and open-minded, I think about things and examine them from all points of view before acting. Moreover, I love to travel, and meeting new people with different cultures makes me happy, I met an incredible Mexican family with who I lived for almost 2 years and they became a kind of "second family" for me. Moreover, I am someone who likes to learn new things, I never stay on my achievements.

Luce Kaiser

llc.kaiser@student.maastrichtuniversity.nl

I lead a high school small business project as CEO, planting 1000+ trees in the Amazon and earning +160% ROI. At university, I enjoyed my involvement as an analyst in Europe's first student-managed fund in which I got to learn from many impressive business leaders such as Michael O'Leary and Eddie O'Connor. I aspire to transform business for good.
